[Part II]

After this Professor SMYTH [SMYTH][iv] was forbidden to print [4 groups unrecovered] laboratory. ERNEST [ERNEST][v] has

[17 groups unrecovered]

In the book there is no information about the quantity of uranium being crushed but he [D.] confirms this information in conversations with the people connected with [6 groups unrecovered] at his place and can turn [it][a] over to us at any time. In the book there is a complete description of the process with a diagram and all necessary materials are enumerated.

Two weeks ago ERNEST received a letter from D.[vi] who said that he had [B.] not written because of lack of time.

VOLKOV permitted ERNEST to meet the people with whom Professor SMYTH collaborated. Among them are the engineer Morris PERELMAN[vii] and
